

We are appalled that a few large, wealthy and generally conservative corporations/owners own and therefore control what Americans hear and watch. We need laws that insure diversity of media control.
Sincerely, Eric and Virginia Hoyte